

Beanstalk Blues

Emily Barden

Verse 1

Jack went to market,
Tried to sell his cow.
Needed some money,
Got beans instead somehow!
Jack's mum was angry,
"What a fool!" she said.
She threw the beans away and sent Jack straight to bed.

Chorus

Beanstalk, beanstalk, reach for the sky,
Beanstalk, beanstalk, Jack climbed up high.
(Spoken) "FEE FI FO FUM, LOOK OUT JACK, HERE I COME!
I smell the blood of an Englishman!"

Verse 2

Jack climbed the beanstalk,
A magic land appeared.
Giant golden eggs,
And a giant to be feared.
Back down the beanstalk,
Jack no longer poor.
Golden eggs for mother,
Happy evermore.

Chorus

In the story we've told,
Jack got the gold,
And the giant got the beanstalk blues!
