

I Should Have Brushed My Teeth

Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

I sat in the chair as it rose through the air,
Took me close to a heavenly white light.
The man in the mask set to work on his task,
With a drill like a scream in the dark.

Chorus

I should have brushed my teeth twice a day,
Then I wouldn't have this tooth decay.
I should have spent more time with brush and paste,
Then my mouth would not have gone to waste.

Verse 2

The acid from drinks, well it caused quite a stink,
The enamel eroded away.
A cavity next, so my dentist was vexed,
As bacteria could get in and play.

Chorus

I should have brushed my teeth twice a day,
Then I wouldn't have this tooth decay.
I should have spent more time with brush and paste,
Then my mouth would not have gone to waste.

Coda

Part 1 (4 times)

My canines grip and pierce the food,
My molars grind so it is chewed.
My incisors they can cut and slice,
But only if I keep them nice.

Part 2 (3 times)

Why did I rush?
I should have brushed.
Now I feel ill,
I hear the drill.

Part 3 (2 times)

Too late now to stop the rot,
I might even lose the lot.
Maybe I can save a few,
Or eat soup and not chew.
