

Little Red Riding Hood

Music by Jonathan Cook

Lyrics by Sue Beckett

Verse 1

Little Red Riding Hood all dressed in red,
Taking buns and flowers to her granny sick in bed,
Walking through the creepy woods and feeling quite alone,
When this story first was told there were no mobile phones.

The wolf appeared beside her, what a gentleman was he,
He was friendly, he was funny and he kept her company.
He walked along to keep her safe but then he said he had to go,
He hurried to her granny's house to eat her as you know!

Chorus

Never talk to strangers, be careful who you meet,
Never trust a big bad wolf, it's you he wants to eat!

Verse 2

Little Red Riding Hood knocked on the door,
Wolfy he cried out to her "My dear please come on in!"
He was dressed in Granny's clothes and had a hairy chin!
"What great big ears and eyes you have, your teeth are scary too.
You really don't seem like yourself,
You really don't seem like yourself,
Oh Granny it's not you!"

Chorus

Never talk to strangers, be careful who you meet,
Never trust a big bad wolf, it's you he wants to eat!

Verse 3

The wolf jumped out of bed and gobbled up Red Riding Hood,
But a woodcutter was passing by and quickly understood.
He slit the wolf right open and out hopped both Red and Gran,
Far away he took the wolf, he really was the man!

Chorus

Never talk to strangers, be careful who you meet,
Never trust a big bad wolf, it's you he wants to eat!
Never talk to strangers, be careful who you meet,
Never trust a big bad wolf, it's you he wants to eat!
