

Mudlarking

(Simple Days)
Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

Mudlarking was how we had our fun.

Back then we didn't even have the internet,
Back then the T.V. channels numbered three.
Back then it was a diff'rent time for kids like us,
Our leisure time was innocent and free.

Chorus

They were simple days with simple ways,
You'd be amazed at how we played,
Mudlarking was how we had our fun.
The travellers would throw their cash,
We'd pick it up and make a splash,
Mudlarking was how we had our fun.

Verse 2

But then somebody said we need a terminus,
They built it where we used to go and play.
And now instead of us there is a monument,
In scribed with verse that talks of yesterday.

Chorus

And those were the simple days with simple ways,
You'd be amazed at how we played,
Mudlarking was how we had our fun.
The travellers would throw their cash,
We'd pick it up and make a splash,
Mudlarking was how we had our fun.
