

Painted Crayfish

Catherine Brentnall

Verse 1

If you're painting a picture,
Of life under the sea.
And you want to paint a crayfish,
Take some advice from me.
I'm the prettiest type to look at,
The painted crayfish that's me.
Lots of crayfish are brownly red and dull,
But I'm a real treat to see.
So don't go wasting all your brown and red,
Paint me and use all your colours instead.

Chorus

Come on, give it a go,
Pick up your paintbrush let the colours flow.

Verse 2

I'm no ordinary crayfish,
My look is stylish and sleek.
I wear a multitude of colours,
Arranged in patterns unique.
And my legs are black and white,
Striped vertically.
Lots of crayfish are brownly red and dull,
But I'm a real treat to see.
So don't go wasting all your brown and red,
Paint me and use all your colours instead.

Chorus
