

Peace For This World

Simon Roberts

Thousands of men have died for such ideals as those we know.
Young men left their loved ones, brave and primed to go.
Ready to take the biggest risk, become the price of war.
Sail twelve hundred warships in nineteen forty-four.

I think and hope and pray that humanity has learnt,
And we must find a way to gain an eternal peace for this world.

Five thousand British soldiers went on to fall that way,
In Operation Overlord, the darkest of all days.
Young men from many nations, gave their lives for what we see,
To live each day in freedom, to live and to be free.

I think and hope and pray that humanity has learnt,
And we must find a way to gain an eternal peace for this world.

Eternal peace for this world.

© Song Source

Only to be used by subscribing schools and organisations

