

Puss In Boots

Catherine Brentnall

Verse 1

May I present the lovely Puss in Boots,
Dressed in his finery it's Puss in Boots,
He's a smart cat,
A very sharp cat.
His master Jack was penniless and so Puss made a plan.

Verse 2

He went and tricked the King did Puss in Boots,
Oh what a clever thing that Puss in Boots,
He's a smart cat,
A very sharp cat.
He convinced the King that Jack was the Marquis of Carabas.

Bridge

The King believed that Jack was a nobleman,
He fell for all the clever cat said.
His daughter soon became Jack's biggest fan,
And the King agreed that they could wed!

Verse 3

Thanks to the cunning deeds of Puss in Boots,
Jack wed the princess: bravo Puss in Boots!
He's a smart cat,
A very sharp cat.
The future of his master was finally secure.
Clever Puss in Boots, your name will live for evermore.
