

Teacher

Emma Bannister

Verse 1

The policeman and the fireman, the army and the navy too.
The doctors and the nurses, the lady in the zoo.
They worked so hard to get there but the ones who always see them through,
Are the ones we can't do without.

Chorus

If I didn't have you, teacher,
Wouldn't know what to do, teacher,
Then the world would be through, teacher,
What would we do?
If I didn't have you teacher,
All the facts won't be true, teacher,
We'd be down and blue, teacher.
The world wouldn't be the same,
Without you teacher.

Verse 2

Politicians and the journalists, musicians and photographers,
The artists and the managers, the footballers and cricketers,
They worked so hard to get there but the ones who always see them through,
Are the ones we can't do without.

Chorus

If I didn't have you, teacher,
Wouldn't know what to do, teacher,
Then the world would be through, teacher,
What would we do?

If I didn't have you teacher,
All the facts won't be true, teacher,
We'd be down and blue, teacher.
The world wouldn't be the same,
Without you teacher.

So the next time that you moan about homework,
Just think who's looking out for you,
'Cos there'll never be anyone like your teacher.
