

The Hound Of The Tangovilles

Simon Roberts

I never said "It's elementary",
They only used it in the film!
There was no need for me to wear a hat,
'Twas not Doyle's will.
There is no mention of a scarlet rash,
Let's make no bones.
My name's not Tango, it's not Cash,
It's Sherlock Holmes!

Whilst Queen Victoria sat on her throne,
I solved my cases day and night.
No titillating turnip was too much,
Though quite a sight!
With Watson's help it was a huge success;
Detective nous.
We shared adventures but we didn't share the house!

With Moriarty large,
I kept ahead.
But did he strike me down?
Did I live to tell the tale? Did I end up dead?

My pipe and powers of deduction strong,
I solve each case.

I'm Sherlock Holmes,
So just remember it,
The best detective ever writ,
The only one and only Sherlock Holmes.
