

The Lasagne Song

The Tenth Task

Iain Gilmour

Verse 1

Hercules was sent to Gerryon to get his cows,
He was not too keen to let them go, so had a row.
Hercules was not that patient, so he drew his sword,
Gerryon was killed and all his cattle did applaud.
That was just the start of all his woes.

Chorus

It's a battle, moving cattle back from Gerryon,
When the bovine take their own line, causes frustration.
Tell the whole herd that it's absurd, must do as you tell,
Say with candour that lasagne works with beef quite well.

Verse 2

Hercules was doing well so Hera thought she could,
Do something to make the cattle not do as they should.
So she sent a gadfly down to bite them on their bum,
This made all the cattle panic and away they ran.
Took nearly a year to get them back.

Chorus

It's a battle, moving cattle back from Gerryon,
When the bovine take their own line, causes frustration.
Tell the whole herd that it's absurd, must do as you tell,
Say with candour that lasagne works with beef quite well.
Say with candour that lasagne works with beef quite well.
